

KS2

Metaphor

Saying an object or person is something else, without the use of the word 'like' or 'as'.

Examples:

The man's eyes were fireflies.

The wind was a pack of howling wolves.

She stalked her prey through the darkening streets.

A river of tears flowed down his cheeks as he watched them leave.